Presents a Free

DiversityArts Performing Arts Workshop

Saturday March 1st: 9.00am – 3.00pm

Hillsborough Room - Fickling Convention Centre - Three Kings - 546 Mt Albert Road

This one day workshop will be of particular interest to Performing Arts and Dance tutors and teachers. Free morning and afternoon tea and classroom resources provided.

Registrations are limited - so be in early or you may miss out! Our presenters are keen to network with other practitioners. The day is divided into a series of three, one and a half hour dance / music and singing workshops with breaks for morning tea, lunch and afternoon tea. Wear comfortable loose clothing.

The Presenters

Yaw Boateng offers a blend of Ghanaian dance and drumming in his two hour workshop which is guaranteed to be fun. Experience his unique approach to keeping fit through song, dance rhythm and music. Yaw is renowned for his appearance at festivals throughout New Zealand.

Priya Chellani, Indian Dancer, Choreographer, Educator, Theatre Actress, and Event Co-ordinator of Indigo Fusion Dance Co., presents a fabulous Bollywood / traditional fusion dance workshop. Priya is well known as a judge of Bollywood dance and has a huge background in performance in India and the Middle East.

Bharati Mahimkar and musical friends from the Hindu Social Services Foundation present a highly enjoyable workshop on a well known Maharashtrian folk dance form called Lezhim. Learn about the tradition of the form and the song and dance moves for a 1 minute routine and interact with the Indian musical instruments.

ARMS Workshop Co-ordinator: Susan Battye is an experienced Drama teacher, playwright and workshop co-ordinator
